the women's center, located in Chapel Hill, invites you to enter Through Women's Eyes, By Women's Hands, a major regional exhibition for women artists of North Carolina. All North Carolina women are welcome to enter, whether beginning or established artists.

Through Women's Eyes, By Women's Hands serves as a celebration of the work and vision of North Carolina's women artists and as the Center's largest fundraiser. One third of the proceeds from art sales benefit the Center. The mission of The Women's Center is to support Triangle area women in achieving their personal & professional goals through information, education, referral & support services. Annually, over 6,000 women in Orange, Durham, Chatham and other counties are served by the non-profit resource center.

RULES of ENTRY

1. PROCEDURES FOR ENTRY

All North Carolina women are welcome to enter, whether beginning or established artists. Entries will be judged by SLIDES ONLY with a maximum of TWO PIECES OF ART per artist. Send TWO identical slides for EACH ENTRY, a maximum of four slides per artist to: The Women's Center, PO Box 1057, Chapel Hill, NC 27514. On each slide, print your name, the title and place a RED DOT on the left hand bottom corner of the slide. Slides must be postmarked by Monday, Jan. 6, 2003. Any entry postmarked after the 6th will be returned. If you wish, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your entry, and we will return one slide after the show. The other slide will be kept on file and may be used for publicity purposes, no exceptions.

Slide quality makes a difference in the jurying and awarding process. Your work is best shown through high quality slides. For information on preparing quality slides or professional photographers, please visit our web site at www.womenspace.org.

Due to limited display space, no work can exceed 4' in height or 4' in width, or 50 lbs. in weight, including frame. Three-dimensional pieces must be easily transported. Two-dimensional art pieces must be securely framed (no clip frames), wired and ready to hang. Please do not submit apparel items or work that requires special installation. We reserve the right to exclude work we consider inappropriate for exhibition due to difficult installation or space requirements.

2. FEES

Processing fee is $10 for one entry or $15 for two entries.

3. ART SALES

All selected art will be for sale, with The Women's Center retaining one third of the sale price. Most pieces in the show that sell are priced at $1,000 or under. Due to the nonprofit status of The Women's Center, there will be no sales tax added to the price of the artwork. Payment for sold works will be mailed to artists within 30 days after the close of the show.

4. REPRODUCTION RIGHTS

The Women's Center reserves the right to photograph any work for publicity or promotional purposes. All works chosen for these purposes will be credited to the artist and the artist will be informed of its use.

5. LIABILITY

Accepted work will be insured while on exhibition and will be handled carefully to avoid damage. However, submission of an entry is at the artist's own risk. The declared value of the work must be reasonable and in line with the artist's previous sales.

6. NOTIFICATION OF SELECTED ARTWORK

Selected artists will be contacted by phone on Monday, Jan. 20, 2003.

7. DELIVERY OF ARTWORK FOR EXHIBITION

Artwork by artists residing within a 120-mile radius of Chapel Hill must be hand-delivered on Tuesday, Feb. 18 between 12 PM and 8 PM to the Sheraton Chapel Hill Hotel.

Although we prefer artists to hand deliver artwork, the Center will accept shipping from artists residing outside of a 120-mile radius of Chapel Hill according to the following guidelines:

- Shipping must be addressed c/o Terri Allred, The Women's Center, 210 Henderson Street, Chapel Hill, NC 27514.
- Artist is required to pay a handling fee of $15 per piece, if shipped. The handling fee must be received by The Women's Center no later than Feb. 18.
- Shipped art will be accepted no earlier than Feb. 10 and no later than Feb. 17.
- The Women's Center will not accept deliveries that arrive COD.
- All packing and return shipping arrangements for unsold art are the responsibility of the artist.

8. PROCEDURES FOR EXHIBITION CLOSING

Unsold art must be picked-up on Friday, Feb. 28 between 2:30 PM and 4:00 PM or Saturday, March 1 between 10:00 AM and 4:00 PM at the Sheraton Chapel Hill Hotel. Works left after March 1, 2003 become property of The Women's Center.

Artists whose works have been sold will be contacted by phone before Feb. 28.

9. FYI

Although the exhibition is designed to celebrate women artists, the content or theme of the art does not have to be based on women's issues. All artists should submit their best work regardless of subject matter. Most pieces in the show that sell are priced under $1,000—however, price is not included in the jurying process.

Artwork by invited local craft artists will be displayed on the dining room tables during the Luncheon on Friday, Feb. 28. These crafts will be for sale during the Luncheon only; the crafts are separate from the juried exhibition and are a part of the fundraising aspect of this event. If you are interested in participating in the 2004 craft sale, please contact The Women's Center, 919-968-4610.

Artist participation in show constitutes agreement to all Rules of Entry. Please do not call to inquire about personal exception to these rules. For other inquiries call 919-968-4610, 9:00 AM to 7:30 PM, Monday-Thursday, and 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM, Friday. For more information visit www.womenspace.org.
