Finances and Children: How to Raise a Money Smart Child and Paying for College

Presenter: Kathy Brommage - Financial Advisor, Edward Jones

Will your child grow up to be a financially responsible adult? What does it really cost to attend college? There are so many different ways to save for college - what are the pros and cons? This workshop will provide information that will help you to understand the various options for paying for education, and provide you with tools and techniques for talking with your child about money.

Thursday, September 9, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Let's Talk Money: Managing, Monitoring and Controlling Your Finances

Presenter: JonNisha Riggs - Financial Counselor, Local Government Federal Credit Union

How prepared are you for a financial emergency? Do you know the real amount of money you are spending within a month or over the course of a year? Are you stressed out about mounting or old debt? Now more than ever, it is important to assess your financial situation and understand your rights under the new credit laws. Join to as we help you in understanding how to reduce debt, identify spending patterns, and create a savings/investing plan to ensure that you are on track to meet your personal financial goals.

Thursday, September 30, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Parents' Peace of Mind: Protecting Your Most Important Assets – Your Children

Presenter: Jackie Bedard - Attorney & Counselor At Law, Carolina Family Estate Planning

Do you know exactly what you need to do to achieve peace of mind knowing your kids will be taken care of no matter what? In this workshop, you will discover: why naming guardians isn't enough, how a will leaves your children at risk, the 6 common mistakes parents made when naming guardians, how to leave your assets to your children protected from irresponsible spending, creditors and divorce, how a second marriage leaves your child at risk, and why a basic will or trust may leave your children unprotected in an emergency.
